Founded in 1893, TMI is the oldest Episcopal Church-sponsored college-preparatory school in the Southwest. TMI educates boys and girls in grades 6-12, with an optional Residence Life Program for students in grades 8-12. TMI's mission is to provide an excellent educational community with values based on the teachings of Jesus Christ, challenging motivated students to develop their full potential in service and leadership. TMI is an educational community offering a rigorous, academically focused curriculum including Honors and Advanced Placement courses, daily chapel, a comprehensive athletic program, fine arts, extracurricular activities, and an optional JROTC program. The average class size is 15, and 100% of our graduating students are accepted to four-year colleges, universities, and service academies.

TMI-The Episcopal School of Texas admits qualified applicants of any race, color, national or ethnic origin.
