

TMI Episcopal Fast Facts

Our mission statement

The mission of TMI is to provide an excellent educational community with values based on the teachings of Jesus Christ, challenging motivated students to develop their full potential in service and leadership.

Our history

- TMI was founded in 1893 by James S. Johnston, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of West Texas.
- Girls have been admitted since 1972, and the military program became optional in 1974.
- After outgrowing two previous campuses, TMI moved to the present campus in 1989.
- Illustrious alumni include Gen. Douglas MacArthur, several other general officers, members of Congress, university presidents, authors, an ambassador and many other men and women who have been successful in business, education, medicine and the arts.

Our location

TMI comprises more than 80 acres in far northwest San Antonio on the edge of the Texas Hill Country.

Our student body

- As of the start of the 2017-2018 school year, 470 students are enrolled at TMI.
- About one-third of TMI students are in Middle School, grades six through eight; the other two-thirds are in Upper School, grades nine through 12.
- Most are day students; Residential Life (boarding) students including international students are enrolled in five- and seven-day boarding programs.
- Current students include National Merit Scholarship semifinalists, National Hispanic Scholars, AP Scholars, all-state and all-district athletes, National Latin and Spanish exam medalists and many others who have earned distinctions in academics, athletics and community service.

Our faculty

TMI has 54 full-time faculty members; 74 percent hold advanced degrees including eight doctorates. The student/teacher ratio is 9:1.

Our Corps of Cadets

The Texas Military Institute Corps of Cadets is an Army JROTC unit, an optional program open to all students in grades 6-12. The Corps has been recognized as an Honor Unit with Distinction for the past 23 consecutive years. About a third of all current students are members. TMI cadets are known as "Keepers of Tradition."

Our affiliations

TMI is accredited by the Independent Schools Association of the Southwest (ISAS) and the Southwest Association of Episcopal Schools (SAES). TMI also is a member school of the National Association of Episcopal Schools (NAES) and National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS).
